_____ An Additional Service: If you have Civil War relics relating to your ancestor that you want permanently preserved and made available for observation by future generations, these may be donated to the East Tennessee Historical Society. Letters, diaries, manuscripts, discharge papers, and other documents (or copies) will go into the McClung Historical Collection. Weapons, uniforms, and equipment will go into the East Tennessee Historical Society Museum. In both places, the relics will be preserved, cataloged, indexed, and if you choose, your name and your ancestor's name will be permanently attached to the item. Should you be interested in making such a donation, place a check mark above, and the staff of ETHS will get in touch with you by telephone to answer questions and discuss details.
